Bought for my trip to Rome. Was incredibly useful, could even use it out in the rain, was able to fold it different ways depending on what part of town I was in. Really liked the information that came in the little pamphlet and the map itself has large font, image for the biggest tourist spots and is very legible, would definitely recommend!

I must have read what I wanted to read in the description. This is a great map for the historic center of Rome, but I want to go to Testaccio and this map barely gets there. Streets aren't named and the Piramide Metro stop isn't on the map. I wanted more of Rome. I am using "Walking Rome" and this map was said to go with it, but it doesn't quite do that.

Very sturdy and detailed map. Too bad that in Rome many of the roads have no street signs so....

laminated, folds up so it is easy to carry along and not too large when open, print is large enough to read

We actually used maps given to us by the bus tour and hotel much more effectively. This map did not help in identifying metro stops and monuments. Monuments on map were not always located on the map facing the correct direction.

This map was fantastic and had transit as well, however it cut off part of the area that we needed (which is still technically part of the city). It would have been nice to have more coverage, however the transit coverage was complete and the map still worked really well.

Can't wait to use it on my trip!

There are lots of free maps available at most hotels. However, none compare to the detail that this map provides. IMO it is worth the expense if you plan on sightseeing on your own without a guide.
