Every Day A Miracle: Success Stories With Sound Therapy

Synopsis

This book includes interviews with parents of children with diagnoses of autism, AD/HD, dyslexia, OCD, and more that share heartwarming stories of the positive changes received from their sound-based therapies. Each chapter offers analysis explaining why the sound therapy worked & how it was able to make major positive changes in these peoples lives. Every Day A Miracle: Success Stories with Sound Therapy is a sequel to Davis Sound Bodies through Sound Therapy, building upon the diagnostic assessment that Davis introduced in her earlier publication. This book Every Day A Miracle: Success Stories with Sound Therapy includes interviews of 16 of her clients. Parents of children with diagnoses of autism, AD/HD, dyslexia, OCD, and more share heartwarming stories of the positive changes received from their sound-based therapies. Adults also relate how sound-based therapies improved their lives. Each chapter offers an analytical critique by the author that explains why the sound therapy worked and how it was able to make major positive changes in these people's lives from around the globe. This book is a must read for parents, childcare providers and anyone interested in total body wellness. The reader will identify with the gratifying emotional responses, the positive changes in development, and the enhancement in personal growth.
