Customer Reviews

Enjoy a welcome change of pace and discover a world you may not know exists in your own backyard. Day Trips describes hundreds of fascinating, exciting (and many free of charge) things to do, most within a two-hour drive of Raleigh-Durham. You can explore our Colonial past and "birthplace of independence" with a guided walking tour through historic Halifax. Sample "pig in a pup," an oversized barbecue-stuffed hush puppy served at King's Restaurant, one of numerous barbecue joints in the state. Drive down US 1 south to find more than forty-three championship courses in this area known as the Golf Capital of the World. Each day trip includes travel directions, destination highlights, other places to visit along the way, choice restaurants and lodging (including price ranges) and shopping. (5 1/2 x 8 1/2, 224 pages, maps)

Ralph Grizzle is a contributing editor to North Carolina's Our State magazine, where he frequently writes about travel destinations within the state. His travel articles have appeared in Hemisphere, the United Airlines in-flight magazine, and the Wall Street Journal, among other national publications. He lives in Asheville, North Carolina.

I owned this book years ago when it was new and I lent it to so many folks, eventually it didn't get returned to me. So, I bought another copy (used) of the same thing. Now it is a bit dated but still has good basic "what to see/where to go" info. Not so sure I totally agree with what the author considers a day trip. Book is a very good buy for the money. I will keep mine in my guest room for visitors to use.

Nice gift - for friend moving to NC - loved it.
