Customer Reviews

I think you have to treat this one as the introduction to the series. It is mostly about world building and character establishment. The plot itself is pretty thing but seems to be leading to much more complexity in the coming books. If you read as much of this author as I do, you will enjoy this one. Not as strong as some of his other works but still good reading.

God story, characters are good and sympathetic. Watch the mystery begin and continue to an ending that brings more questions. I will !likely read the rest of the series.

Original plot, compelling characters, life and death drama, morals vs sin...love it! I highly recommend this book! Bring on book 2

Not many books can keep me up reading thru the night as this one did. Now I find myself wrapped in curiosity to know more of Carth and her legacy.

Great book. You can definitely see that it leaves openings to tie together with his other books. Love how you start to see how it all comes together

The story is great and is only a couple of steps shy of being truly great epic fantasy. A bit more depth and more character tie- ins would push it past fantasy and into epic. It was a really good read and I would highly recommend it. Excited to see the author rise even further in ability in the next few books.

Another great read with unexpected endings. You have to wonder when the author can come up with so many good stories, where he finds the inspiration. I, for one, am a happy supporter. Movie rating pg

worth the time to read
