Customer Reviews

As with every volume in this set, Rebbe Nachman's original lecture is on the right page with a word-for-word English translation on the left page. If you cannot read Hebrew (yet), the English side is a truly pure rendition of Rebbe Nachman's ratzon. If you can read Hebrew, the ivrit side has nekudot. And the part that elevates this set of LM to the top of Mount Moriah is the in-depth commentary. Seriously, you could study any one of these volumes for the rest of your life and never grow tired. These books have it all. Love them!

Amazing

Rebbe Nachman's Likutey Moharan, which is published in several volumes by the Breslov Research Institute out of Jerusalem and Monsey, NY, is a well-done set of volumes, with the Hebrew and Aramaic on the one side of the page, and the English on the other. Therefore, the reader can explore the complicated Hebrew wordplay that so much of the Rebbe's teaching rests upon, and not lose their flavor in a loose translation. In Rebbe Nachman's world, so many things flow into the next, and a knowledge of the original languages is not only useful but necessary to get things right. This volume will help you get there.
