Customer Reviews

James Buckley, Jr. has written more than 50 books for kids, including Who Was Ernest Shackleton?

Love these books. My son, who is 9 has been reading them for a little over a year now and this book is wonderful. I must say that this is one of his favorites. He is a history junky, lol. He so far seems also seems to love the Jackie Robinson, Teddy Roosevelt, Abraham Lincoln, Robert E Lee, What is the world series the best as a 8 and 9 year old. I also read these to him in the evenings and I really enjoy them as a 40 year old father. I have learned so much from them as well. Sometimes I read them before or after my son in order to have an educated discussion with him about the subject of the book. I really also get alot out of them as well.

A great book, it kept my 8 year old son captivated. He is a big baseball fan and an even bigger Pirate fan. My husband, who thought he know all there was to know about Roberto Clemente,also learned a few things from this short biography.

We love this series. We own maybe 9-10 different tittles. My 7 year old and me like to read them together. We've learned a lot of interesting facts about important figures and historic moments as well as current.

I like how it told about Roberto's interesting life and how he won so many awards with his baseball career.

This is my son's first book from the Who Was...series, and he really enjoyed it. I had told him a bit about Roberto Clemente a few years ago but this gave him more details. I read some of it myself and can see it is well-written and informative. The Abraham Lincoln and Albert Einstein books are next!

The best who was sport book my son ever read. Highly recommended to those sporty book readers.Thank you for making my son a reader Took books to Cuba to give to children at a school.

My grandson liked this book. He has almost all of this series. Short but good information. Great teaching.
