Requiem: Vocal Score (Dover Vocal Scores)

Synopsis

Commissioned with an anonymous letter delivered by an unknown messenger, Mozart's Requiem has haunted audiences and fueled myths for centuries. Legends recount the composer's premonitions of his untimely death amid his feverish attempts to complete the Requiem. A work of emotional power and dark fury, it evokes the pathos and injustice of dying young. The sublime beauty of its form, an elevated and exalted style of sacred music, provides the ultimate voice to the composer's genius. This affordable piano-vocal version of the Requiem is ideal for rehearsals and performances as well as following along with recordings. Reproduced from an authoritative edition, it includes full translations of the Latin text.

Customer Reviews

I like the clear printing and the well set out accompaniment. I am missing bar numbers in the score. Working with other musicians that may be singing/directing from other editions, having bar numbers is ESSENTIAL. At present, I'm putting them in by hand. Mozart did not complete this work. Salieri completed it in his style and other editions clearly show which parts are by Mozart, and which are by Salieri. This score does not show that. It is of academic interest, nevertheless interesting to know.

Beautifully printed inside and outside

It is a good score, not the best. The print isn't the clearest, but doable.
