Ridley Pearson is the award-winning author of the best-selling Kingdom Keepers series along with forty other novels for adults (suspense) and young readers (adventure) including cowriting Peter and the Starcatchers. Ridley spends a good deal of his time sneaking around the Disney parks and aboard the Disney Cruise Line ships all in the name of research.

I've really enjoyed all of the Kingdom Keepers books with the original series still being my favorite. Disney at Last is a fitting end to the series but I also found it perhaps the most challenging to get through as multiple characters hopping through multiple timelines made things a bit challenging at times. Fun read, but not my favorite.

What an exciting conclusion to the Kingdom Keepers The Return trilogy. Finn and the others may be done, but I have a feeling that maybe we'll be seeing a new spinoff book series starring Nick and Mattie...who knows?

This series is written so well. Ridley Pearson has a wonderful way with his writing. It's hard to put the book down. I hope he keeps writing more in this series. Love all of his Disney adventures.

Keepers are forever. Thanks Mr. Pearson for another wonderful adventure in The Happiest Place on Earth. Thanks also Mr. Disney for letting us remain children for as long as we live.

All of the Kingdom Keepers books, the entire series was very entertaining and enjoyable. I recommend these books for all ages who enjoy good YA fantasy.

Such a fantastic book that had me on the edge of my seat, It even made me cry tears of joy and sadness and no book can do that to me. It was so well written and just makes you want to go to Disney! If you have yet to even pick up the series of Kingdom Keepers you should definitely do it! Why cuz these books show so much about Disney and you cant help but love Disney more and more! Im looking forward to more Ridley! Thanks for making the best Disney Ride in the entire World!

This book was purchased as a gift for my daughter. She LOVES the kingdom keepers books. She is a real Disney fan.

I don't know what to say. The series has come to an end. Much like the passing of a monarch, our kind is dead. The story is over. This book was everything that I hoped it would be. I loved that minor characters stepped up. I loved that true love endured. I love that magic remained and only grew more. I will miss this series dearly.
