Eminent U.S. homoeopath. Born in Austria. Studied for one year at the Vienna Medical School, before settling in Ohio. Graduated from the Philadelphia Medical College in 1876. Soon afterwards he moved to San Francisco where he worked as a homoeopath for more than fifty years. He was co-founder of the Pacific Homoeopathic Medical College and Hahnemann Hospital in 1881. This was incorporated into the University of California, where he became the first professor of Homoeopathic Materia Medica and Therapeutics, a post he held for thirty years. -Reprinted from The Concordant Materia Medica by Frans Vermeulen; Merlijn Publishers, Duinoordstraat 78, 2023 WE Haarlem, The Netherlands.

The best reference combination i have found for Homeopathy! As a Nutritionist,i use this book every day in my practice. The repertory is very helpful, especially if you are a beginner, to narrow down your remedy.

This is a very handy and complete Homoepatic guide....but it sometimes is a very complicated and at times hard too follow Materia Medica and Repertory. I think it needs a guide on how too use included, just too make it a little easier and perhaps faster to use...practically!

I ordered this book because they use it in the homeopathic shop I go to. Great reference. Book was in fine condition.

Very helpful as a nutritionist.

I ordered this book at the recommendation of a friend. With the uncertainly times we live in today, I wanted a good resource for all my homeopathics. It takes a bit to understand how to use the book, but I think it's a great resource!
