Customer Reviews

The dependable Lives Cut Short series adds another four titles featuring celebrities who died prematurely. Each begins with a poignant quote from the late celeb. The books use many other first-person quotes as well as comments from people who knew the subject. Freed from the risk of libel, the authors generally treat their biographees with a mix of admiration for their achievements and honesty about the mistakes they made. Diana will give students who think of her primarily as Prince William's mother a good sense of her difficulties with life in the spotlight and the problems in her marriage. Given the subject, it's a bit macabre to say it, but this is one series worth continuing. Grades 7-10. --Susan Dove Lempke
