The Christian's Work Of Dying Daily (Vintage Puritan)

Synopsis

This short collection of three sermon by the eminent Puritan John Owen is an exposition of 1 Cor. 15:31, showing why, how, and to what cause every Christian needs to die every day. This is a great treatise showing that Christians should leave the weight of worldly things behind and revel in the glory of God.

Customer Reviews

Found it quite different from what I expected be. However it contains thoughts and truths which are reminders to those living a sort of 'in the midst of life we are in death' but leaves us with peace.

thank you

This book is very thoughtful and helps fellow believers to cast all their hope and soul into the hands of our faithful high priest and Saviour Jesus Christ our Lord. Rest in Him

Here are sublime truths to put into practice on denying self.
