West Of Paradise: Exploring Southeastern Arizona

Synopsis

It's all here: the OK Corral, Geronimo country, ultramodern telescopes, newly discovered Kartchner Caverns. Old West meets New West in southeastern Arizona. This indispensable guide reveals the wealth of history, art, culture, and recreation in this legendary region. Formerly a resident of Paradise, Arizona, Carolyn Niethammer includes contemporary and historic photographs, a detailed map, and a calendar of regional events in West of Paradise: Exploring Southeastern Arizona. This is the ultimate guide to fascinating destinations: Bisbee's art scene, Elgin's wineries, the mission at Tumacacori, the Tubac presidio, and much more. Carolyn Niethammer is the author of several books including Daughters of the Earth: The Lives and Legends of American Indian Women and American Indian Cooking: Recipes from the Southwest.

Customer Reviews

Carolyn Niethammer is the author of several books including Daughters of the Earth: The Lives and Legends of American Indian Women and American Indian Cooking: Recipes from the Southwest.

This is a little gem. It is engagingly written and informative. Even after some of the current information drifts out of date the historical background, examples, and pictures will be worth the price of the book.
