James Tyler Kent, A.M., Chicago, Illinois, Professor of Materia Medica in Hahnemann Medical College, Chicago physician and author of several valuable medical works, His contributions to the literature of the profession are known by their strength rather than their length, and include, more prominently, his "Repertory", "Homoeopathic Philosophy" and "Lectures on Materia Medica Kent died, on June 6, 1916 at Stevensville, Montana.

The product was of good quality and very usable. The only complaint was that it wasn't the product I ordered. The picture showed a black book with yellow text on the cover and that was the one I was looking for.

This a fantastic repertory for the student or practitioner. I have tried many other repertories, and while each has something unique to offer I always return to Kent's Repertory to find exactly what I am looking for.
