Customer Reviews

My daughter loves Daniel Tiger and this was nice to find because the shows very thoughtfully never reference religious or denominational holidays, they have "snowflake day" so this was nice for her to see Daniel relate to her about Christmas. Good book, I was glad I got it for her.

Purchased this book for a 24 day countdown to Christmas. I wrap up 24 books and put them in a open box. Then Dec. 1st I let one of my grandchildren open a book then I read it to them. This way they learn to count, listen, take turns and wait. It is fun to do.

My daughter (3 years old) loves all things DT and this book was not a disappointment for either of us. This is one of the higher quality character Christmas books we have. The pictures were really cute.

Super cute Daniel Tiger Christmas book! My son loves it, we have read it many times. And who doesn't love flip the lap books? I still do!

Baby loves all things Daniel Tiger. These books go along with the tv episodes really well and the board books have held up through some tough love by a 12 month old. The illustrations are cute and we enjoy reading the stories. This made an excellent Christmas present for a baby who loves Daniel Tiger Cute story and my 3 yr old loves it. She still wants to read it, and it's March! :) Would recommend.

My kids love Daniel Tiger, and this book is bright and colorful, with classic Daniel Tiger phrasing. This "open the flap" parts might not withstand my toddler's roughness, but this book was well worth the money. I particularly like how the book is about Christmas traditions like making cookies, visiting with family, decorating the Christmas Tree etc. This book makes a great gift for young Daniel Tiger fans.

This was a huge hit with my Daniel Tiger loving daughter. I had to read it quite a lot and it wasn't torture.
