Interesting book. Is optional to purchase for course. Thought the quality of the material used to print would be better quality.

This was not a book, it was just a copy of a book with 3 holes punched into it. It was held by rubber bands and didn't even come with a binder.

So it's a 3 ring binder with loose leaf paper. For $53.00, insane!!

not a book !! It's a copy in a bad "very cheap" three ring binder

It was brand-new and complete as advertised. I'm using it for my GOVT200 class. So far so good.

If you are buying this for Liberty's Gov't 200 classes, YOU DO NOT NEED IT (check your current syllabus to verify yourself). This is a Liberty professor's critique of Glenn Martin's "Prevailing Worldviews of Western Society"- also a required book for the class. I think Ferdon Gai is very smart and provides very good and valuable conversation on the relevant topics. However, I am trying to get a degree and do not appreciate being continually gouged by annually inflated tuition prices and book sales by those enjoying a business model of easy sales sucking the government teat of subsidies.
