Customer Reviews

The book arrived on time and was stated to be in good condition. Both the front and back covers were ripped and taped. The actual pages of music inside were in perfect condition. The book is definitely usable but just looks a bit beat up. Considering I bought the book for the music and not the cover, I am not too worried about the cover condition.

I was not aware I was receiving a spiral bound copy of the book, the day it arrived both covers were already tearing off.

A lot of really good advice for the student of Trumpet. I am an old beginner, so I could only take advantage of what I was ready for. Seems comprehensive to me and an asset to advanced students as well.

I ordered this for my son. He loves it and says that it is one of the best, top trumpet books.

The book is just perfect. The binding it's great but it came in a small box, so the cover page was broken and the binding too folded. I'll wao to see if it takes the original form.

Fantastic.

An excellent book for amusable- painful training sessions and extra plus for the CD
