Kodama Naoko is a Japanese manga creator best known for NTR - Netsuzou Trap

I had just been reviewing the new volume of Citrus and suggested this forthcoming title.

NTR-Netsuzou Trap shows promise as a yuri romance. We have the tomboy Yuma and her petite friend Hotaru. The girls have lived next to each other in an apartment complex for years and growing up, Yuma protected Hotaru. But now, they are in high school and have their first boyfriends. Yuma is surprised when on a double date, Hotaru gets quite frisky with her, suggesting Yuma needs practice when the big time comes with her boyfriend, Takeda. The couples go on a ski trip and Hotaru makes the most of the situation when she and Yuma bathe together. When Yuma asks why she is doing this, Hotaru retorts "Yuma-chan, you play sports and are bigger and stronger than me. If you had wanted to stop me, you could have....You just keep believing whatever you like, Yuma-chan." NTR-Netsuzou Trap does well showing the awkwardness, confusion and passion of young love. If you like Citrus or the work of Milk Morinaga, this series should also be of appeal.

I picked up this Manga because I enjoyed Citrus and thought this might be another good romance story. It's difficult to classify as romance, however, because it's very sexually charged to the point where some parts could almost be considered softcore hentai. I haven't read all of the volumes yet, but the interaction between characters seems mostly physical, and there doesn't seem to be a lot of character development happening. However, the art is nice to look at, and it remains interesting despite its shortcomings.

I love yuri stories a lot and this is no exception. It has a good amount of fan service but also leaves me wanting more in the story. I'm definitely gonna read more soon.

One of my favorite mangas from my favorite artist/author. I've read the story already online, liked it so much I wanted to add to my collection. I'm glad it's finally available in english.

Very satisfied. I really like it a lot!

I already read this manga online and really love it. It's an interesting story. The shipping is fast as I pre-ordered it. The only thing that makes me feel unhappy is the bent in the back cover. I think next time I will go to the bookstore to get a perfect one.

Good manga, I love reading it. Get's a step sister when she go's to a different school.

So sexy and amazing cute yuri manga great for fans of citrus!!!!
