Cars: A Complete History

Synopsis

Amazing feats of innovation and engineering, iconic vehicles are not just stylish and powerful, they're irresistible symbols of status, freedom, and progress. Now Cars: A Complete History puts that sense of engineering back into the collector's hands by providing 50 press-out models of the world's most distinguished vehicles, along with an informative and entertaining account of each car's role in automobile history in a fun and imaginative two-part book. Photos and illustrations of cars, both classic and modern, accompany the celebrities who brought some of them their fame, including Al Capone and the Duesenberg Model J, Sean Connery's James Bond in the Aston Martin DB5, and Steve McQueen with the Ford Mustang Mark 1 in Bullitt. From social and cultural history to the advancement of technological innovation, readers will learn everything from who drove the 1959 Austin Mini to which car prompted the introduction of a national speed limit.

Simon Heptinstall is a writer, journalist, editor, broadcaster, and photographer. An editor and media consultant for several blue chip organizations, he lives in Wiltshire, U.K.

I love this book so much I already bought 3 of them for birthday gifts. The selection of cars is great (it has an Audi Quattro!!!) and the quality is stellar for such simple models. I bought it for my 4 year old daughter and we love building the cars together.

bf loved and was cheaper than michaels

My Grandson is 8 and loves cars. Perfect book to break down the car and put it together, sort of like paper dolls only paper cars made out of card stock. It is great and he loves it. The book tells you about each car you are making.

though I got a used one with a few cars missing I love this book and the paper models are adorable and fun!

Really nice book. Its super informative and well made. My son loves it!

Really really fun book for kids and adults alike. Some of the models are challenging even for the adult while there are plenty of easier ones for the kids. Most of the models look surprisingly great when done.

I bought this book for my 10 yr old grandson and he loves it. I has many punch out forms of all different kinds of cars. I think it would be great for an adult too, who likes to do models.

Amazing book! my 5-year-old nephew loves it, but it's perfect for any car lover of any age.
