Cat Shaming 2018 Day-to-Day Calendar

Synopsis

Pedro Andrade was inspired to start a Tumblr blog in 2010 by Dog Shaming, as well as his own two mischievous cats. The blog reached 500,000 followers in 2016. Pedro lives in California.

I was always a fan of "Dog Shaming" started in 2012 by Pascale Lemire, but given that I cohabitate with cats, I wanted something for those of us with a proclivity for felines. Here it is! Pedro Andrade has excelled at extolling the virtues and vices of cats in "Cat Shaming", a hilarious book that people living with these confusing and curious creatures will appreciate. There are so many standout captions and photos that I can't really pick a favorite, but I particularly enjoy the themes of thievery and subsequent ingestion of inappropriate items (pizza, ribbon, etc.) and feline-induced broken bones (I have experienced both of these personally.) This is a great little book overall, with little to quibble about (though some of the entries do have somewhat salty language) and so many illustrations and captions that truly encompass what it's like to live with these wondrous yet utterly daft creatures. Highly recommended!

Silly stuff reminding us how much we cat owners put up with. My only complaint is that there are numerous four letter words which I didn't expect and had given it to my 10 year old as a birthday present. Explicit warning would have been appreciated.

Saw this book at the library googled if had it and they DID OF COURSE !!! The best book always makes me laugh smile and want to share it I keep it on my desk and people get to know me better by meddling about and reading it themselves !!! I love my book these bad cats all the notes are true too cats are in a class by themselves i love all animals but I'm so glad I saw this book in the library !

Good gift for cat lover. They seemed to enjoy

Hilarious book! As a cat mom, we love our crazy fur babies. So glad my cats haven't tried most of these shenanigans!

Hilarious, side-splitting, and oh so familiar. This book takes care of your grumpy moods. I bought it as a present but I read it before I wrapped it up (LOL).

If your in need of a good belly laugh and a little pick me up! Get this hilarious little book.

Amazing! came in great shape
