Synopsis

The 2015 Community Association Handbook is an annual publication that we are pleased to provide community associations and community managers in California. The book contains topic summaries, the Davis-Stirling Act, SB-800 requirements for construction defect actions, select California statutes, and case summaries. We hope that it will serve as a useful legal reference resource. While we at Silldorf & Levine, LLP intend this book to provide general information, it is not intended to be used as legal advice for your individual situation or specific legal matter. This book is intended to provide current and accurate information to help managers and board members maintain their professional competence. This book is distributed with the understanding that Silldorf & Levine, LLP is not rendering any legal, accounting, or other professional services.

Customer Reviews

Book provides necessary information for condominium owners and officers. The Kindle edition makes searching difficult. The back-of-the-book index is of no use. The Kindle, built in, search feature provides searches for only one word which makes searching highly difficult. Get the "hard cover" book version which is much more useful. This is true of any reference book.

This is a must have for all HOA Board members and HOA managers. With laws changing so quickly Board members and managers need to be in the know at all times. I highly recommend to have this book on hand and it's only a $1!!
