HIGGINS: The Pacificator (Volume 1)

Synopsis

TWO BROTHERS . . . A FORGOTTEN SHIP . . . THE DEPTHS OF FANTASTICAL SEAS Fifteen year old Kai Higgins and his elder brother, Dune, have never dreamed their father was more than a Scottish fisherman. But when he is lost to the deep, leaving behind a mysterious star chart, they set sail across the Moray Firth, following the stars to the unknown. In this journey through the legends of the sea, Kai and Dune uncover their late father's hidden life—a world of trial, ensnaring enchantment, and daring mythological beasts. Will Kai raise a sword with the Clan of Each-Uisge and his newfound love? Will his brother stand by his side no matter what briny fiend comes their way? A quest of courage, the Higgins' legacy rests in their wake.

A wonderful story by a talented and eloquent author. While this fantasy tale would naturally appeal to young adults, the heroic elements of the story and its characters makes it an enjoyable read for all ages! Sam is very gifted with brilliant imagination and I look forward to the next installment!

If you like coming of age stories and adventure, this is definitely a fun read. It went in a direction I wasn't expecting, which was refreshing, and it was enjoyable throughout. It also taught me a lot about boats and navigation. Give it a read!

Made my commute to work much more enjoyable! Fun read!

Awesome book! I'm not big into fantasy fiction books, but I decided to give this one a try. I couldn't put the book down. It was a great book and I can't wait to read the next book in the series!

This writer knows how to build up the suspense! Vivid descriptions make you feel as though you were out on sea with the Higgins boys. Looking forward to the sequel!
