The Village Idiots: Part1 - Inheritance

Synopsis

First in a trilogy of novellas, The Village Idiots sets the scene for a comedy of errors in a sleepy Greek Village, as two friends find themselves sinking deeper into trouble with each bad decision they make. Spiros is a simple man who is easily led astray, but who has rarely wandered further than the village and its surrounds. Older, slightly more wayward and most definitely not wiser, Takis looks out for Spiros, whilst taking advantage of his younger friend's naivety. When the duo, who generally scrape by doing odd jobs, discover they are heirs to an estate, they mistakenly believe that their ship has come in! As they discover their inheritance is not all as it seems, Takis begins to plot their way out, dragging poor Spiros with him. As one escapade spirals in to another, Takis is easily lured by the money signs while Spiros finds his eyes are being opened to a wider world. Amidst the ouzo and the scheming, this charming and comical tale will leave you eagerly awaiting the next instalment!

I enjoyed meeting these two new characters from the Greek Village and how they deal with the village lawyer we've already met in previously written books. The scrapes these villagers get into together is almost unbelievable, but somehow you know things like this can actually happen. I'm looking forward to seeing what happens next in novella Part 2 coming out in less than a week. I think an ouzo will be in order!

This is the fifth I have read of the greek village tales. They are great. Please no more cliff hangers. Bring some kind of conclusion to each book. Thank you. Bonnie

This book wasn't as fun as previous village books. I kind of expected some of the things to happen, and I prefer to be surprised. All in all I still love the Village books and love Sara Alexi.

How in the world do you think up these crazy stories? Too much ouzo? Coffee too strong? Regardless, I love your vivid imagination, Sara.

Sara Alexi's Greek island characters are always delightful. It will be interesting to see what happens to these two old men. Can't wait to read the next book in the series!

Loved the book and can't wait for part two and three!

I love a good book that keeps you hanging waiting for the next one. Great book Sara!!!

Great short read. I want more!!!! I love how Sara ties all the characters together with each book. Great story!!!
